Child care center directors and family child care providers want information about what is happening in North Carolina around various child care issues. The North Carolina Early Childhood Association wants to provide you with this information in a telephone seminar format. For a small fee you can have information about changes in early care and education in North Carolina without ever leaving your program, without the expense of time or gas.

You just need to complete the registration form that is enclosed. Select the telephone seminars you wish to participate in, complete the form and send in your form and payment by the deadline. You will then be mailed or emailed a call-in number for each call, as it gets close to the date of that call. On the date and time of the telephone conference, you just call the number you have been given and enter your access code. Then wait for the call to begin, and get up-to-date information on child care issues right in your own program.

All seminars are held from 1:00 pm—2:00 pm

Members receive a discounted rate!
